

Dear users of the Russian Embassy in Mexico web-site!

Today, in the 2009 New Year eve, I am glad to present you a new version of our Internet portal!

Being up-to-date we aimed to do it more friendly and comfortable to use and at the same time the most saturated it can be.

I am sure we managed to do it and you will be able to obtain any necessary information about Mexico, about the condition and development of Russian-Mexican relationship and of course about the activities of the Russian Embassy.

As it was before our Internet site maintains three languages: Russian, Spanish and English.

Furthermore, as usual we provide free access to the web-version of the most recent edition of our Information journal.

There is a special part of our web-site dedicated to the consular section of the Embassy, where anyone can get an opinion on such issues as citizenship, passports, visas and other matters.

From this site you can easily reach the servers of the Russian governing bodies: the Russian President Administration, the Government, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and state institutions as well as you can find links to the leading Russian information agencies sites.

According to the statistics our previous web-site version was visited by 50 thousand people from about 30 countries.

We will work henceforward for that both our permanent and new users could find here some useful data, latest news, comments and interesting articles.

It is very symbolical that we enter the coming year with a renovated web-site!

Wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and hope that our virtual contacts will go on and will promote the further strengthening of the relationship between Russian and Mexican friendly nations.
